Local Authorities

DEVO NEXT

To build the homes we need, we must make better use of small sites...

What should councils do?

Our surveys told us...

SME builders agree planning departments need more resources	64%	Councils said "the quality of applications is often poor"	55%
Councils said the Government will not reach its target of one million new homes by 2020 with current resource levels.	87%	SME builders said "the planning system is too heavy handed"	79%
		SME builders said local authorities do not proactively communicate or engage with them.	80%
